RSMo 173.030(7)

173.020. The coordinating board for higher education (hereafter referred to as the coordinating board) shall have the responsibility, within the provisions of the Constitution of the state of Missouri, to:

- (1) Conduct studies of population and enrollment trends affecting institutions of higher education in the state;
- (2) Identify higher education needs in the state in terms of the requirements and potential of the young people and in terms of labor force requirements for the development of commerce and industry, and of professional and public services;
- (3) Develop arrangements for more effective and more economical specialization among institutions in types of education programs offered and students served, and for more effective coordination and mutual support among institutions in the utilization of facilities, faculty and other resources;
- (4) Design a coordinated plan for higher education in the state (hereafter referred to as the coordinated plan) and for sub regions in the state, which shall be based on the studies indicated above and on such others as may be deemed relevant by the coordinating board.
